LONDON, Aug. 5.—The vessel which was torpedoed on Saturday morning near a British port while bringing wounded men to England from France was the Warilda. The total number missing is 123. These are as follows:

Two military officers, a commandant in Queen Mary's auxiliary corps, one American soldier, seven of the crew and 112 others.

The missing American is Corporal Buckman.

LONDON, Aug. 5.—The admiralty this evening issued the following communication concerning the torpedoing and sinking of the steamer Warilda:

"The homeward bound ambulance transport Warilda was torpedoed and sunk on the third of August."

The ship was returning from France and nearing a home port when the torpedo struck her, penetrating the ward room where patients were accommodated. About 100 wounded have been landed at a British port coming ashore in what clothing they could reach when rudely awakened.

About 400 patients were on board the vessel. It is not known definitely what the loss of life was. One hundred patients, however, are accounted for as having landed at one port where they were cared for by British organizations and the American Red Cross.

Two American officers and five privates were on board the vessel. Both the officers are officially reported saved. They were Captain J. T. Beatty and Lieutenant H. T. Hubert. The fate of the privates is uncertain. The official report indicates two of them were saved.

After being torpedoed the ship remained afloat for two hours and a quarter. Immediately after the explosion five boats were launched, but before they could be cleared they were smashed and many of their occupants were drowned.

Destroyers rushed to the spot where the submarine was seen to submerge and dropped depth charges.

More than 650 survivors have landed at a British port.

Several Women Nurses Lost

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The captain and thirteen members of the crew of the American Tank Steamer O. B. Jennings, sunk Sunday by a German submarine off the Virginia coast, have arrived safely at Norfolk, Va., the navy department announced tonight. The fourteen men with the thirty previously reported as having been landed, accounts for all the members of the tankers' crew.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Names of American soldiers who have fallen in the great Franco-American drive which turned the German offensive on the Marne into an utter defeat have begun to come in from overseas. They swelled to 706, the total casualties made public today by the war department in two separate lists.

Altho nearly three times as great as the largest number heretofore announced in a single day the total today represents only a small part of the great battle of the lists which have been begun July 15. And it is not to be assumed that it represents the losses for any one day. "No estimate of the American casualties in this continuous fighting has been received from General Pershing and it was said authorized. In that connection, Acting secretary of War Crowell today deprecated any guesses as to casualties in the overseas forces saying that publications which would exaggerate or minimize the total would create unnecessary anxiety among the relatives and friends of American soldiers. Of the names made public today, 459 were of those who were killed in action and 80 who died from wounds.

The second list contained only names of the dead—256 killed in action and 43 who died of wounds, but the first list showed 48 wounded degree undetermined and three missing in action. In the first list there also were nine who died of disease, one of an aeroplane accident and six from accidents and other causes.

Acting secretary Crowell told newspaper correspondents that general Pershing would supply complete and verified casualty lists as rapidly as they can be transmitted and that they would be given to the press and speak for themselves as to numbers.

"We are beginning," said Mr. Crowell, "to receive from General Pershing the toll of victory in the Marne offensive."

"The casualty lists that are now being made public have been received by cable from headquarters American Expeditionary Forces and represent losses in the recent fighting."

"There is no indication of the total number of casualties and the lists made public today give the names of 706 officers and men. Other lists are coming in by cable and being decoded."

While casualties in offensive operations necessarily are heavy officers here do not believe that there has been an unusual number among the American forces. Proof of the falsity of the German reports of great American losses, which have been circulated to impress the German people at home as given by the fact that the American divisions which began the fighting still were taking part in it last Saturday official reports show. It was pointed out today that had the casualties among the American forces been unusually large, some of the divisions necessarily would have had to be withdrawn.

The fact that none of them have been and that they have been fighting virtually continuously for twenty-one days, is taken by officers here to show that their losses have been much smaller than those they have inflicted on the enemy, who has been forced to withdraw many of his divisions.

U-Boats Still a Menace to Ships on Eastern Coast

(By the Associated Press)
BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The captain and thirteen members of the crew of the American Tank Steamer O. B. Jennings, sunk Sunday by a German submarine off the Virginia coast, have arrived safely at Norfolk, Va., the navy department announced tonight. The fourteen men with the thirty previously reported as having been landed, accounts for all the members of the tankers' crew.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—German submarines now are operating at two widely separated points along the Atlantic seaboard, one in the important sea lane off the Virginia coast where the American tank steamer O. B. Jennings was sunk Sunday, and other in Canadian waters where fishing smacks and other unimportant craft have been destroyed. Presence of another raider in the waters off the middle Atlantic coast where in May and June upwards of twenty vessels were sunk, became known today when the navy department announced the sinking of the Jennings and the landing of from 30 to 32 members of the crew at Norfolk by an American patrol boat. A second small boat from the tanker with the captain and 13 men is missing, but as the weather has been good officials confidently hope it will be picked up.

Full details of the sinking of the Jennings were lacking tonight, but from the fact that the steamer sent a wireless message saying she was being shelled and asking for assistance, officials assumed that the submarine opened fire without giving the crew time to take to the boats, and that the possibility that the steamer had undertaken to make a run for safety. Patrol boats answered the radio calls, but neither the Jennings nor the submarine was in sight when they arrived Sunday night at the position given by the steamer. Later survivors were found.

Tank Steamer Sunk.
Washington, Aug. 5.—Sinking of the American Tank Steamer O. B. Jennings yesterday 100 miles off the Virginia coast announced today, revealed the presence of at least two German submarines on this side of the Atlantic. The second raider has been operating off the coast of Nova Scotia and nearby waters for several days.

Steps to deal with the latest raider have been taken by the navy department and patrol boats and seaplanes already are searching the coast waters. Officials reiterated that the movement of troops to France will not be interfered with.

49 Men on Board Steamer.
New York, Aug. 5.—There were 49 men on board the tank steamer O. B. Jennings, torpedoed and sunk by a submarine off the Virginia coast yesterday, according to the records of the Standard Oil Company here. Officials of the company received word from agents in Norfolk today that the chief officer and 31 men had been landed there which would leave 17 men, including its captain, G. W. Nordstrom, of Brooklyn, unaccounted for.

Sub-Chaser Sunk.
Washington, Aug. 5.—Sinking of a submarine chaser in collision with another vessel last night off the Virginia coast was reported today by the Navy Department. All members of the crew were rescued.

San Diego Struck Mine.
Washington, Aug. 5.—Investigation has disclosed that the armored cruiser San Diego, sunk several weeks ago off the American coast, struck a mine. Secretary Daniels announced today.

Toll in Canadian Waters.
A Canadian Atlantic Port, Aug. 5.—The toll of the German submarine raid in Canadian waters the last four days has reached a total of five ships tonight. Four of these were small fishing schooners—three of them American—and the other the new lumber schooner Dorffontein. The last of the five was reported today when the crew of the Nova Scotia fisherman Nelson A. of Yarmouth, came ashore in their dories and said their vessel had been sunk by a bomb Sunday noon. No lives have been lost. The crews of the American fishing schooners Murrell and Annie M. Perry, both of Boston and the Rob Roy of Gloucester, which were attacked Saturday reached Canadian ports in their dories yesterday. The first Canadian victim of the raider the lumber schooner Dorffontein which was protected and burned Friday at the mouth of the Bay of Fundy, was towed into port today, still burning.

MAN POWER BILL IS INTRODUCED IN CONGRESS

Sept. 5 Recommended As Registration Day For All Between 18 and 45

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—With an urgent recommendation from Provost Marshal General Crowder that it be enacted without delay and a suggestion that Sept. 5, next, might be fixed as registration day for approximately 12,000,000 men throughout the country the administration's manpower bill requiring the registration for military service of all men between the ages of 18 and 45 years was introduced today in the senate and house. Unless immediate steps are taken to provide additional men, General Crowder said the weekly registration of men as they attained 21 years of age will be necessary to fill the draft quotas after Sept. 1, when only 100,000 of the 1918 registrants will be available.

The bill would amend the present selective act so as to require the registration of all men between 18 and 20 years and 32 and 45 years inclusive. While the total number of men in the latter classes would total 10,028,973 General Crowder estimates the number who would be eligible for Class 1 would only be 601,236, owing to exemptions for dependents or industrial and physical reasons. Between 18 and 20 years he estimates that 3,171,771 men would register while 1,787,609 men would be eligible for Class 1.

Referred to Committee.
The measure which was prepared by Secretary Baker with the approval of the president and provost marshal general was referred to the military committee. Congressional leaders plan to have the measure considered soon after the summer recess period is over the latter part of this month.

The principal portions of the bill are as follows: "The president may draft such persons liable to military service in such sequence of ages and at such time or times as he may prescribe; * * * a citizen or subject of a country neutral in the present war who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States shall be relieved from liability to military service upon his making a declaration of registration with regulations as the president may prescribe, withdrawing his intention to become a citizen of the United States * * * and he shall forever be debarred from becoming a citizen of the United States."

The provision referring to persons engaged in industry and agriculture providing for their relief from military duty would be amended to read:

"Persons engaged in occupations or employment found to be necessary to the maintenance of the military establishment or the effective operation of the military forces or the maintenance of national interest during the emergency."

"All male persons between the ages of 18 and 45, both inclusive, shall be subject to registration in accordance with regulations to be prescribed by the president, and upon confirmation by the president or other public notice given by him or by his direction stating the time or times and place or places of any such registration, it shall be the duty of all persons of the designated ages except officers and enlisted men of the regular army, the navy and the national guard and naval militia while in the service of the United States to present themselves for and submit to registration under the provisions of this act; * * *"

"Persons shall be subject to conscription as herein provided who shall have attained their 18th birthday and who shall not have attained their 46th birthday on or before the day set for the registration in any such proclamation by the president or any such other public notice given by him or by his discretion and all persons so registered shall be and remain subject to draft into the forces hereby authorized unless exempted or excused therefrom * * * and the president may be at such intervals as he may desire from time to time require all male persons who have attained the age of 18 years since the last preceding date of registration and on or before the next date for registration by proclamation of the president, except such persons as are exempt from registration hereunder to register in the same manner and subject to the same requirements and liabilities as those previously registered under the terms thereof * * *"

Nation Begins to Replace Tonnage Sunk by Germans

(By the Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 5.—America today began to replace the tonnage sunk by German submarines in the days before the allied shipyards had reached a production equal to the toll of the U-boats with the launching of the 7,500 ton Quistconck, christened by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson with a bottle of American made champagne. President Wilson and a notable gathering were spectators. From this time forward, an increasing output of vessels will not merely offset the naval efforts of Germany, but will steadily make up the deficiency in world tonnage.

The Quistconck is the first ship to be launched from the Hog Island ship yard and the occasion was an epoch in the nation's history. Chairman Hurley, of the shipping board declared:

"That's fine," the president exclaimed jubilantly to Mrs. Wilson as he surveyed the gigantic ship manufacturing plant, the 30,000 employees of the yard and many other thousands of spectators.

Hardly had the President and Mrs. Wilson arrived at the christening stand that a huge basket of pink roses was presented to the president's wife. The bearer was William McMillen, the man who drove the first rivet in the Quistconck.

Immediately after the launching the President and Mrs. Wilson and their party were accompanied by the army general staff, Secretary of War Crowell and Vice President Piez of the emergency fleet corporation and Frederick Holbrook, president of the American International Shipbuilding corporation.

Because of the heat Chairman Hurley abandoned the address which he had prepared for the key note of the launching, but told many of the spectators who called for a speech that he would have liked to make the public tribute to the workmen which he had planned.

BULLETINS

LONDON, Aug. 5.—Two British torpedo boat destroyers were sunk by enemy mines on August 2, according to an official statement by the British admiralty. Five officers and 92 ratings were lost, according to the statement.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 5.—Illinois soldiers in overseas service will not be given an opportunity to vote at the November elections, according to an opinion rendered by Attorney General Brandegee today to Secretary of State Emerson. Regulations of the war department, he said, make it impossible for the men to vote.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—Hostile airships approached the east coast off England at 9:30 Monday night the admiralty announced today this morning (Tuesday). The enemy craft did not penetrate far inland.

PARIS, Aug. 5.—Bombardment of the city and its environs by long range guns was desultory throughout the day. Revival of the long range attack was a failure as a means of terrorism. Opinion among the populace and the newspapers is that the bombardment was being carried out for political effect in Germany.

PARIS, Aug. 5.—The Americans covered themselves with glory yesterday in the hand to hand fighting in the streets of Isnes yesterday, when they captured the town. The fighting is said to have been the bitterest of the whole war, the Prussian Guards asked no quarter and being bayoneted or clubbed to death as they stood by their machine guns.

MUST REPORT FOR DUTY.
St. Louis, Aug. 5.—Walter Gerber, shortstop for the St. Louis American today received notice from his draft board in Columbus, Ohio, to report for army service August 8.

WORK OUT PLANS FOR DISPATCH OF YANKS TO SIBERIA

Japan to Have Largest Single Body of Troops in Undertaking

(By the Associated Press)
BULLETIN
'Aug. 4.—American troops participated in the landing of the allied forces at Archangel last week. The first detachment of the international forces included members of the Russian officers' league. The participation of the Americans in the landing has been greeted enthusiastically in northern Russia. The people consider that the United States is absolutely without selfish interests as regards Russia and look upon the Americans as a guarantee of the friendliness of the allies toward Russia.

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Liberation of ten additional Siberian cities from the Bolsheviks thru combined efforts of the Czech-Slovaks and the military organizations of the Siberian government was announced in despatches today to the Russian embassy from Omsk.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Plans for the organization and dispatch of the American military contingent to Russia to co-operate with forces of the allied nations in support of the Czech-Slovaks at Vladivostok are being worked out by the army general staff. Beyond the statement issued Saturday by Acting Secretary of State Polk that American forces would be "a few thousands" in number, no intimation as to the size of the contingent has been given.

At the war department today it was said that by next Wednesday General March, chief of staff, would be able to give out a statement of as much of the plans as safely may be disclosed. It is assumed that Japan, by reason of her proximity to the scene of action, and the excellent condition of her army and transport service will supply the largest single body of troops in the undertaking, and therefore following military rules would naturally assign to command of the troops an officer of higher rank than those in command of the smaller American and entente forces. In the opinion of officials here this officer will be General Baron Ueyehara, chief of staff of the Japanese army.

The Red Cross has been forehanded in arranging for the participation of that organization in the Siberian enterprise and already has arranged for the shipment to the far east of quantities of supplies likely to be needed. This is to be done in addition to the usual hospital service which falls to the Red Cross. The British have landed a battalion of troops at Vladivostok while a similar force of French troops from Tonquin is due at the same port at any moment.

Admiral Knight, commanding the American naval forces on the Asiatic station already is at Vladivostok on his flagship and is in communication twice each day with the navy department here. It was said that he would of course co-operate fully with the military authorities in the execution of their program using for this purpose the vessels of his fleet. It is not permissible to indicate just where the American troops are to come from, but in view of the known relatively small number of seasoned soldiers anywhere near Vladivostok the principal force must be drawn from a distant point, which would seem to place the initiative in a military sense upon the nearby Japanese forces. There will be no armed resistance to the landing of the international soldiers at Vladivostok as the port practically is dominated by the Japanese and British naval and military forces already there, so far these have not interfered with the functions of the local authorities. Assurance that no trouble is to be expected on this account has been received by the Russian embassy here in the shape of returns from the results of the municipal elections. These showed that the Bourgeois and moderate Socialists polled 69 per cent of the votes while the Bolsheviks received only 31 per cent.

The embassy also gave out a statement that "everywhere the population of different classes and

Packers Charged with Conspiracy; Deny All Charges

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Charged with conspiracy in allowing and accepting over a five year period rebates on freight charges for livestock shipments, the Pennsylvania railroad company, Armour & Company, Swift & Company, and the Jersey City Stock Yards company, were indicted by a federal grand jury today. The offenses are alleged to have been committed between November 1912, and December, 1917.

The Jersey City Stock Yards company, according to the indictment was created by the Armour and Swift interests owned by them, and incorporated in Delaware. This subsidiary concern, it is charged, leased from the Pennsylvania railroad, yards in Jersey City, enabling the packers to route shipments to New York from western points over the Pennsylvania lines and thus benefit by the "concessions and discriminations" in rates mentioned and in the indictments. These yards, it is explained, were obtained for a sum less than one fourth their rental value.

The rebates complained of the federal charges states, were on shipments from Chicago, East St. Louis, South Omaha, Kansas City, Louisville, and other locations of Armour and Swift dressing stations.

NO RELIEF IN SIGHT FROM THE HEAT WAVE

Overspreads Entire Country East of Rock Mountains—Still Higher Temperatures May Be Recorded Today

Washington, Aug. 5.—Relief is not in sight from any quarter from the heat wave which has overspread the entire country east of the Rocky Mountains, bringing record high temperatures today to the middlewest, it was said tonight at the weather bureau. The heated area tomorrow will overspread the eastern and middle Atlantic states, causing still higher temperatures than those recorded today.

Evansville, Ind., with an official temperature of 104, was the hottest place east of the Mississippi today. Temperatures of 102 degrees were recorded at Indianapolis, Toledo and Fort Wayne, Ind., thermometer readings at Toledo and Fort Wayne being the highest recorded in the forty year history of the weather bureau. Chicago reported a temperature of 102 degrees. The heat wave will be broken by thunderstorms first appearing in the west or by a high pressure area from Alaska, neither of which are in sight, it was said.

Record Breaker in Chicago.
Chicago, Aug. 5.—The hottest August day in the history of Chicago, with the government thermometer registering 102 degrees at 4:30 p. m., resulted in only five heat prostrations. On the street thermometers registered 110 degrees. The hottest day ever recorded in Chicago was on July 21, 1901, when the temperature was 103 degrees.

FOLLOW NO RELIEF IN SIGHT
The weather in Kansas, Kansas City, Aug. 5.—Temperatures generally today four degrees lower than those of yesterday were reported from Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, to the weather bureau here tonight, but prospects are for continued warm weather, it was stated.

Practically all reports from Missouri cities gave maximums over 100 degrees but Texas points are dropping below that figure. Continued heavy winds are reported from Kansas which, observers say, indicates continued damage to corn.

WOMAN APPOINTED.
New York, Aug. 5.—For the first time in New York's history a woman holds the position of executive secretary to the mayor. The appointment of Miss Frances W. Rokus was announced today by Mayor John F. Hylan. The position pays $4,800 annually.

WINS FINAL MATCH.
Chicago, Aug. 5.—Miss Carrie Neeley of Chicago, former western champion defeated Mrs. W. I. Northrup of Portland, Oregon, in the final match today for the championship in the women's singles of the Western Tennis Championship tournament by a score of 6-3, 6-4.

political groups has manifested vivid interest and sympathy with the efforts of the "United Siberian government" in co-operation with the Czech-Slovaks to organize an army to re-establish together with the allies a battle front against Germany; the formation of which is proceeding very successfully. ALLIES ENGAGE ENEMY ON NORTH SIDE OF AISNE

Force Crossing of the River At a Number of New Points

(By the Associated Press)
BULLETIN
ARMY ON THE VESLE, Aug. 5.—By the Associated Press.—American troops today held on to Fismes and all other gains notwithstanding terrific artillery action by the Germans and in the face of every opposition threw patrols across the Vesle at several places. French troops to their right and left also calmly went about the completion of their plans and also moved patrols across the river, the German artillery failing to stop them.

The Germans are now imposing strong opposition to the further advance of the allied troops along the Vesle river from the east of Soissons to the region west of Rheims. Meantime however, the main bodies of the enemy army continue to make their way toward the Aisne to the north of which stream they hope somewhere to reach a haven of safety from the persistent onslaught of the American, French and British and Italian troops, who in less than three weeks have all but blotted out Soissons-Rheims salient.

Take Further Ground.
Notwithstanding the bringing into play by the enemy of large numbers of machine guns and artillery of heavier calibre, the employment of large numbers of picked troops, including the well-tried Prussian guards and the Bavarians; and in spite of the fact that the rains have sent the Vesle into flood and turned the lowlands into quagmires, the Americans and the other allied troops have forced crossings of the river at a number of new points and on the north side of the stream are engaging the enemy. The latest French official communication which recently has been extremely modest in chronicling gains made by the allies, stated that Monday saw only local engagements and that the situation on the battle front is without change. Correspondents with the allied headquarters however, assert that at several points between Sermeuse, which lies to the east of Soissons and Fismes and between Fismes and Mulzon the French and Americans have taken further ground across the Vesle and have nullified German counter-attacks delivered in an endeavor to recoup the losses.

Between Mulzon and Chamepigny the Prussian guard and the Bavarians again suffered casualties in their efforts to hold their antagonists. The Germans are anxious to guard this particular part of the line, an advance thru which to any considerable depth would compel them entirely to lose their hold on the territory in which they are entrenched around the shell town of Rheims. In addition to the heavy infantry actions and violent bombardments are also in progress. It is not expected in allied military circles that it is the purpose of the Germans to turn about and face their enemies south of the Aisne. The hill region to the north of the Aisne—probably the old Chemin des Dames battle front—is considered the most probable sector on which the crown prince will elect again to test the mettle of the men of General Foch's command. It is not beyond the realm of possibility that the greater portion of the western battle front shortly may undergo material changes in positions. From the southeast of Amiens near Montdidier northward to the region around Ypres the German front seems all a tremble with expectancy. In addition to a retreat near Montdidier to the west bank of the Aisne river, retrograde movements in the face of attacks around Albert and an evacuation of territory over a front of a half a mile north of LaBasse canal the Germans are nervously bombarding French and British positions at various points, possibly with the idea of ascertaining their strength. The Bethune, Labasse, Hazebrouck and Ypres sectors are being particularly chosen for the attention of the German artillerymen.

UNFOUNDED RUMORS.

To silence these false and sinister rumors, John B. Denmore, Director General of the United States Employment Service, has issued the following statement:

"Skilled workmen who accept government work are no more likely to be sent to France than any other civilian."

"Except those cases where men of draft age are engaged in occupations classified by the Secretary of War as nonproductive, the government has no intention of interfering with the fundamental right of any civilian to change his work as he sees fit. In all cases the individual worker's sense of patriotic duty is the only binding tie between that worker and a war job."

TAX ON TOBACCO.

The proposed tax on tobacco seems legitimate. Tobacco is not a real necessity in life. People could, if they had to, do without it. It is one of what one might call the small luxuries in which they indulge. The tax on tobacco will not injure one. It will not make its products cost any more than they cost forty years ago, when the processes were not quite so low in cost as they are at present. The principal increase in the cost of these products at the present time is not so much due to any tax that the government has imposed on them as to the high prices charged for them by the trust, as it is called.

Lieut. Bruno Russell.

Lieut. Russell, before the outbreak of the war, was a professor in a New York college. When Italy went to war he promptly returned to his native land, volunteered as a private, saw service on the battle lines and rapidly won promotion.

He came to America direct from the firing line and is now connected with the Royal Italian military mission in the United States. He is a wonderful speaker, simple, earnest, direct and speaks beautiful English. His sincere, straightforward presentation of the situation and conditions in Italy and on the Italian front battle lines holds his auditors spell bound.

He appears in the green-gray uniform of a second lieutenant of Italian infantry and outlines aims and ideals of Italy in the war and the proper relations of that nation and the United States for bringing the conflict to a successful conclusion. He realizes the great reality Italy has rendered the allies how magnificently she and others have conducted themselves. Our boys are on the Italian front now. Lieut. Russell will take to this community for the time the story of Italy's glory record in the war. Jacksonville Chautauque, Friday, August 23 to Sunday, September 1, inclusive.

RIPPLING RHYMS

In Other Days.

It seems so strange how we would talk, in olden times, of cheap affairs! How we would argue round the clock, concerning oil well stocks and shares! And often, when the evening came, we sat before the Racket store, and talked about the baseball game until our lungs and heads were sore. If Johnnie bought a motor cart, that was our theme from sun to sun; we'd talk the blued thing all apart, and show just why it wouldn't run. The weather was a daily text, and we denounced the groundhog's game; and then the crops we'd take up next, and they would last till bedtime came. And still we meet at close of day, and gossip all the evening throng; but no one quotes the price of hay, or brings the weather in review. The trifling matters of the town no more engage our anxious thought; we speak, until the moon goes down, of far-off fields where men have fought. Oh, what if Jenks has swiped a cow, or beat a neighbor in a trade? Such things won't draw attention now, when soldiers swing the shining blade. Oh, what if Jimpton has announced that he will run for county clerk? Until the measly foe is trounced, we care not for such piffing work. It seems so strange that once we cared for idle talk of Tom and Dick! But now the nation's word is bared, and other topics make us sick.

NO CESSATION OF WAR PREPARATION URGED.

The immediate necessity for providing legislation for the enrolling and training without cessation of additional men to be sent to France after the draft becomes exhausted, and for seeing that there is no break in continuing our war preparation was pointed out in a letter written by the American Defense Society to Senator James M. Wadsworth, Jr., referring to his recent request in the Senate that Congress provide immediately for the further drafting of men to enlarge our present army after September 5th, in accordance with the President's address in which he advocated not even ceasing at a million men. The letter, which is signed by Mr. Charles Stewart Davidson, Chairman of the society's Board of Trustees, reads:

"On behalf of the American Defense Society we will present in the Senate its respectful request that legislation be immediately passed providing for the enrollment and training without cessation of additional men until the number in the ranks of the United States equals a total of five millions."

"In this connection we respectfully call to the attention of the Senate the fact that the President has publicly advocated not even ceasing at that figure, but that even that figure cannot be attained in time to be of effective use unless the preliminary steps inherent to preparedness be taken steadily and persistently."

"The President's address if not supplemented by congressional action will become empty words and the responsibility will rest upon Congress alone."

According to Mr. Davidson the cost of the training and enrolling of men to be sent to France would be a serious error, is every day or week's delay means that some amount of delay in placing the men now in training on the firing line five months from now, as according to military figures it takes about that amount of time to summon a man to camp, train him, and send him to France and get him in shape to go to the front line trenches. The providing of no men to be drawn after September 15th means time lost at the front. "It is the earnest hope of the American Defense Society," said Mr. Davidson, "that the army 'without limit' will not be fixed definitely and finally at three million four hundred and fifty thousand men as it will be when Class One becomes exhausted in September and if there is no provision made for the immediate calling of additional men."

TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION

A tractor demonstration will be held Tuesday, August 6th plowing to begin promptly at 12 o'clock, at the farm of C. F. Corrington north of New Berlin. There will be demonstrations by the Case, Waterloo Boy, Emerson, Wallace Cub, Moline, Lawson, Titan and Fordson.

LARGE THROG BIDS SOLDIERS FAREWELL

Inspiring Exercises Held On the Lawn of Congregational Church for Departing Colored Soldiers—Speeches Filled with Patriotism—Splendid Musical Numbers.

Could the spirits of departed pioneers such as Rev. A. W. Jackson, Benjamin Henderson, Jordan Duncan, David Spencer, Rev. William Jackson and his devoted wife, "Aunt Lizzie," Benjamin Thomas and others have been in the Congregational church lawn last evening they surely would have said, "What hath God wrought?" A vast throng which could hardly have been accommodated even at the opera house packed every available space on the lawn and filled most of the adjacent sidewalk, gave close and courteous attention to the many words of eloquence, patriotism and good cheer said to and in honor of the young men who were sent to go from the colored population of the city and county to the defense of the nation.

The meeting was called to order by Hon. Miller Weir who said in brief:

I am rejoiced at this grand gathering for it signifies much. I am the son of a Presbyterian elder, an abolitionist of Kentucky, while my grandfather and great grandfather were born in South Carolina so my relations are peculiar.

This most notable gathering marks an epoch in the local history of your race. We have met here this Sunday evening to hold proper services of a patriotic and religious nature, fitting to the occasion of the sending of half a hundred or more of your sons to Camp Grant, where they will be trained for over-sea service and to become a part of the great allied army now on its way to Berlin.

Is Not a Coward

Whatever fault may have been charged to the colored man, no one can say that he is a coward. His country's battles have ever been his own, and when it comes to fighting for his flag, none deny that the colored brother delivers the goods.

As a loyal citizen he stands above reproach. A pro-German negro is unknown. The attempted German propaganda among your race in the south fell flat. Your race has too much sense to deny their God or their country. I do not know that I ever met one of your people that did not believe in the existence of a Supreme Being, creator and ruler of the universe, and in the divinity of Jesus of Nazareth. As Billy Sunday would say, he has his white brothers often beat a block in Christian belief and love of country.

Race Has Made Good Showing

Will the negro fight? Listen to the head lines from "Over there": "Negro troops rush into battle at own request." "The American colored fighters acquitted themselves splendidly in the late German drive." "Colored troops hold the American line on the Marne." "Fighting qualities of the American colored troops praised by American officers and French nation." Will they fight? I should say they will. Listen at this again: "Berlin paid a high tribute to the American negro troops in official dispatches, when it said they were in the front line of attack in the allied advance on the Marne."

Emmett J. Scott, a colored man and secretary of Tuskegee Institute, and now assistant Secretary of War, says, under the head of "What the negro is doing to help win the war," "The negro has already been decorated for valor." "His loyalty at home has withstood the attack of German propaganda." "His answer has been a heightened patriotism and more zealous support of the war." Mr. Scott says—a colored assistant secretary of war, remember—"There are 12,000,000 negroes in the United States. Under the first draft there were 737,000 registrants or close to 8 per cent of the total registration of the United States." "In the mobilization of close to 100,000 of the negro registrants there was no friction between the white and black races." "About 1,000 colored men have been commissioned as officers, this includes 250 colored medical officers." "150 colored men are engaged in the Y. M. C. A. service, some of these workers are in France." "The negro has made a good showing in all war activities, including the purchase of Liberty Bonds and War Stamps." Mr. Scott sends this message to his race: "Our first duty is to fight and to continue to fight until the war is won."

A Broader Freedom

I myself have the vision that after victory on the battle lines of France, and loyal service to your country and flag in time of need, that a better understanding will come about and when the Kaiser "takes the count" and cries "enough," that a broader and more just freedom may be the reward of your people.

Mr. Weir then called on Rev. J. H. Fisher to offer prayer after which the meeting was turned over to Rev. M. L. Mackey who took the chair and called on William Mattox to sing a solo, "We Pray Our Boy Returns to Us," Miss Mazie Mallory accompanying. This was followed by a quartet, Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Mackey, Roy Moss and M. H. Hunter, who sang in a fine manner "America, My Country."

Mr. Mackey said the time had come when the colored man thinks for himself and doesn't say "Amen" to every statement. In the good old days a fervent minister shouted, "Heaven is wide and high" and the audience devoutly answered, "I want to go there."

Then he said, "Hell is deep and wide, and again the people answered, 'I want to go there.' He then introduced interesting occasion that has transpired in Jacksonville, especially for our race.

In history there are some important milestones but all are small when compared with the changes that will follow this war. The world will be reconstructed and a new map for the races will be made, while higher and purer freedom will be the lot of those who are now in an inferior position. Belonging to that race, I have a vision of the outcome of the war when we shall be ushered into a condition where blessings and opportunity will be ours. The war will give the world a proper estimate of the colored man who will have more freedom than heretofore.

Stands By Stars and Stripes.

American will not regard the negro as heretofore. The Caucasian race has centuries behind it with all the culture and advantages of the ages and yet even after all that, if I were not a preacher I would say they have got the worst lot of men of their race. Nor has the white race ever gotten into a close place without calling on the black to help out. From the day when Crispus Atticus gave up his life in Boston down to the time when a colored regiment saved the day at San Juan hill the negro has done his duty. He is patriotic and never fails to stand by the Stars and Stripes.

These young men will have our best wishes, our prayers and aid and when they don the uniform of the United States we pray they may wear it nobly and remember they are soldiers of their native land and when they are victorious they will be honored as heroes with all due rights and privileges.

The eastern skies are bright with a dawn of a new era. America will no longer tolerate what she condemns in Germany.

Young men, this call is to you and we feel you will settle this question and settle it right. God will bring victory in this conflict and Germany will be conquered and as you march triumphant in the streets of Berlin you will be acclaimed as heroes. Be true to your God, your country and your race. God bless you; goodbye.

The address was received with many rounds of applause.

Mrs. Mazie Mallory then sang most acceptably and was accompanied by a chorus of nine young ladies who did admirably.

Freeman's orchestra then favored the audience with a selection, after which the chair introduced Dr. A. H. Kennedy, who delivered the principal address of the evening. Only a few thoughts are possible. In introducing him the chair said the negro race had passed the necktie period and the next speaker was an example of that fact. The doctor said in brief:

A colored man was condemned to prison for life and meeting the other convicted men asked the first how long his sentence was and the man replied, "Six months."

"Pshaw, that's less than a week."

The next said his sentence was six months.

"Pshaw; that's less than a month."

"How long is your sentence?"

"From now on."

And so we are in this war from now on and we'll show the Germans what the colored race can do. We are after the Kaiser more and more and have unlimbered our guns and are ready for action. We have no inconsiderate foe to deal with. Some men were once talking of life and meeting the other convicted men asked the first how long his sentence was and the man replied, "Six months."

The Englishman said, "Ours shoot from sunup to sundown." But the German said, "Give us a man's address and we'll get him."

I feel sure the German people will rise in their might when their eyes are open and will have a government with no Kaiser; no aristocracy but pure democracy. There will inevitably be sorrow as well as joy in this great conflict. Hearts will bleed and homes will be sad but while there is night now, joy will come in the morning and there will be a grand and glorious dawn.

The cause of democracy, righteousness and freedom demands more men and more money. There is no great boon in this world that does not cost something. Young men; this is your country. You have a grand mission and a noble cause. Your fellow colored men over there have greatly sustained the reputation of the race; be it yours nobly to keep it up and add new luster to the name of the African people. In the war of the revolution the colored man fought bravely at Savannah and in many ways showed his worth. In the Civil war 170,000 colored troops fought bravely that they and their fellow men might be free. In the Spanish war it was the brave 24th colored regiment that charged up San Juan Hill, saved the 79th New York regiment and brought Teddy back home.

Would Not Desert Officer

When in the late conflict with Mexico Lieut. Adair fell wounded he told his colored men to go on and save their lives but they would not desert him. An officer was killed and lay with his head in the water. At the imminent risk of his life Charles Bagstaff, a colored trooper tenderly took the body and laid it suitably by a tree.

In a southern state a friendless colored man was on trial for murder with no one to defend him. The great Robert Toombs was asked to take the man's case and after a conference with him announced his client ready for trial. The testimony for the prosecution was all in when Col. Toombs arose and said:

My friend, the dark skinned man lifted the colonel to his shoulders and amid a shower of balls that pierced his body in many places he bore his precious burden to a place of safety and that colonel lives to tell the tale. Could such a man as that commit murder? See the scars on his breast and others are on his body.

A Better Day Coming.

Without leaving the room the jury rose in their seats and pronounced the defendant not guilty. Young men, I bid you prove your selves brave and true as were your fathers before you. At the close of the war you will have a grander and better freedom. The washed and soiled did their part in the battle of the Marne and on other occasions. During fifty years 3900 colored persons have been lynched. In many places the color of line is drawn but a better day is surely coming when freedom full and complete will be ours.

In the south where the colored man asked for help they gave him a rope. No people can be happy when a part of their race are in bondage. Young men, on your shoulders rests the burden of proving what is in us. Too often when men judge the colored race they select some unworthy sump who is unjust but when they judge the white race they take the best.

Our interests are interwoven; the strong must bear the burdens of the weak. Be especially careful of your morals. Let me say with all the earnestness of my soul; do your best; prove yourselves worthy; do not complain and strive ever to rise. We have much reason for thankfulness. We have received fair treatment from the president; our worthy exemption board has treated us handsomely and the army officers will do the same and be it yours, my fellow countrymen to carry aloft the banner of your land wherever you go and return victorious to be honored while you live.

The gentleman's address was loudly applauded.

The next speaker was

Hon. Andrew Russell.

He said in part: I am truly glad to be here and from your looks I feel certain when the Kaiser sees you he will call you black devils. You will drive the Germans to the sea and to the wall. When you get over there you will show Germany that America is the land of the free. The veterans of the Civil war fought for freedom of the colored man and you will fight to save the country. When the Kaiser talks of God he is a hypocrite of the worst sort. All you who write to the boys over there don't tell them of anything sad but say bright and cheerful things. You young men will help add new luster to the arms of our land and will fight bravely that all the world may be free as our country (Applause).

Rev. W. E. Spoons to Camp Grant

At this point it was suggested that it would be especially acceptable to Rev. W. E. Spoons would go with the boys to Camp Grant and loud applause followed the suggestion; cheers for the reverend gentleman rent the air and he agreed to go.

James M. Swales

He said in part: I regard it an honor to be here tonight. I gave four years of my life in the Civil war to the cause of freedom. I suffered the horrors of the prison hell of Andersonville nine months; I endured hunger and cold; privation and hardship which might have been avoided had I been willing to betray my country.

I am proud of the colored people. I never saw a colored anarchist; the race is always true to the country and God and ready to fight for the Stars and Stripes which have never touched the ground but have ever floated over a free and brave people and will float for all regardless of race or condition.

Go forth, young men, to defend this flag, fight for the cause of freedom; and the principles which made this country so great. I am proud that I was able to do what I did for my country and I would rather be entitled to wear this little bronze button than the proudest emblem a king or prince might bestow.

When I was cold and hungry and a stranger in a strange land trying to escape from cruel bloodhounds it was a colored man who shared his scanty morsel with me and guided me on my way. Your first duty is to obey your officers and conduct yourselves at all times worthy of the great position you occupy. You may return crowned with glory and honor with victory perched on your banners. Let the people here keep the home fires burning and may God speed you and preserve you. (Applause).

Rev. H. H. DeWitte

read the list of the men who had contributed in all $45 for a banquet which it had seemed best not to have to the hosts of the banquet and the contents with the banquet fund were ordered distributed among the young men about to leave.

Dr. C. E. Black

carefully explained the process by which the young men were selected and the thoroughness with which they were examined so that they stood 53 picked and selected men. He urged them to remember that their first duty was to obey faithfully the orders given them. They were now in the service of the United States and were bade to be on hand at 5 o'clock next morning ready to move at 5:30 to the train.

Mrs. J. H. Fisher then sang as a solo, "The Star Spangled Banner," in a manner showing a fine voice of great volume and compass and well trained. The audience joined in the chorus and the exercises were at an end and there was never in the city a greater success or more splendid event.

The Start To Camp

The men met at the court house at 5 o'clock Monday morning and were escorted to the station by Matt Starr Post, G. A. R., the colored drum corps and a large number of citizens. There was an especially large turn out and the men were greeted with cheers and greetings all along the line of march. At the train the last farewells were said and the men embarked on their journey in the best of spirits.

GEN. GRANT'S FIRST MARCH.

I. 'Twas in the year of sixty-one, Before the war was really begun; That Grant with his men, 1,000 strong, Marched down the Mound road along.

II. The road was dusty and hot that day, And the men in the field were making hay; They stopped at father's their thirst to quench, And washed their faces in the pan on the bench.

III. But Grant was only a captain, then, And since that time has a general been; Little did we think that day that he, And his name would be lauded in history.

IV. From the county seat they marched away, And pitched their tents at close of day; On that beautiful spot on a rise forground, Has ever since been called "The Allinson's Mound."

V. And my father that night at dusk did ride, On a beautiful horse to that mound's side; He thought he could sell it to Captain Grant, To ride on his long and tiresome jaunt.

VI. But the captain thought the price was too high, So my father mounted the horse with a sigh; And pranced down the long "Mound Road."

VII. To the place where he and his family abode, The writer was only twelve years old, When Grant marched by with his soldiers bold; And 'twas imprinted on my memory.

VIII. As Sherman's famous march to the sea, Still Grant and my father sleep under the sod, And their souls have gone to be with God; Never in traveling this world around, Will I forget when Grant camped on Allison's Mound.

(Written and composed by Mrs. A. F. Kitcher.)

THE NAVY MAIL BOAT.

How we fellows like to stand, Looking eastward to the sea, When the chow has all been eaten.

And it isn't long till three; With our glasses ever ready, For a streak of smoke so thin, That we know without a question, Is the mail boat coming in.

How we like to watch its progress, As it throws the water high, And it anchors in position, For the Jackies coming by; All the fellows looking at it, With a thoughtful, wishing grin, Thinking of the mail that's waiting.

Since the boat was standing in, How we fellows love the letters, From the dear ones back at home.

The little girl whose hand has traveled, O'er the pages he it known Brings a feeling full of power, And encouragement to win, As we watch the ocean daily.

For the mail boat standing in, (From Frank Boylan, U. S. S. Massachusetts, Home Address, 856 South East street, Jacksonville, Ill. Taken from a postal card.)

BOARD OF EDUCATION ADOPTS TAX LEVY

Asks $70,000 for Educational Purposes and $50,000 for Building—Contract Awarded for New Boiler House.

The board of education held a long and very important meeting last evening and transacted a lot of business.

It was decided to ask a tax levy of $70,000 for educational purposes and $50,000 for building purposes.

The junk from the ruins of the high school building brought $1,344.

The smoke stack was reported well under way with foundations completed.

The request of Miss Young, primary teacher in the Morton school, for a leave of absence of one year, was granted.

The resignation of W. H. P. Huber, teacher in the high school, was accepted.

The contract for the new boiler house was awarded to S. G. Chumley, for $5,526, he to have free the brick and stones from the ruins of the high school.

The contract for the plumbing of the new boiler house and setting of the boilers was awarded to the Jacksonville Plumbing and Heating Co., for $2,300. Repairs and work needed on the Springer house were ordered.

Request for second and third grades in the Independence school was referred to the superintendent and committees.

Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson, member attending all meetings of the board till the matter of awarding robes and specifications for the new high school building have been settled.

The board met in regular session with all present except Member Hopper. Minutes of the last meeting took about half an hour to read and were properly approved. Bills amounting to $550.44 were ordered paid, as was the pay roll of $562.25.

The matter of tax levy was suggested, and after considerable discussion the board decided to ask for $70,000 for educational purposes and $50,000 for building fund.

Member Muehlhausen, for the building and grounds committee, reported $1,034 received for junk from the ruins of the high school building, which was considerably more than was expected.

The boilers of the various buildings have been inspected and pronounced all right.

The stack building is in progress, the foundation, 15 feet by 15 feet, square, and 6 feet deep, is solid concrete, is completed and the work is progressing.

W. H. P. Huber Resigns. The resignation of W. H. P. Huber, primary teacher in the Morton school, for a year's leave of absence, on account of nervous troubles and physical condition, was granted. W. H. P. Huber's resignation was presented and occasioned considerable comment. It seemed hard that at this late date he should withdraw, but it was decided to accept his resignation under the circumstances and let him go.

It was suggested that if the new building is to be a model in public schools will be subject to the draft and may go to the front. Superintendent Perrin remarked that it would suit him very well, and that he was ready to go at a moment's notice.

Insurance for Springer Property. The matter of the Springer property was brought up and it was reported that the insurance of $2,500 had been taken out. The question was that 80 per cent of the total value which was required by the present insurance plan, and it was decided that the committee should consult with a competent architect and ascertain what the total value of the property is.

The bids for Boiler House. The architect was requested to open the bids for the new boiler house. Mr. Pierson said that four men had taken plans and specifications but only two of them had presented bids. One of them came back an hour or two after 12 o'clock to make a correction in his bid, which was permitted, and the board ended the same. The bids were as follows:

S. G. Chumley, $5,526.
Joshua Vasconcellos' Sons, $5,550.

The contractor is to use all the old material possible from the ruins of the high school building, not to be deducted from the above figures, and the contract was awarded to Mr. Chumley, the building to be completed by September 2.

The bids for plumbing in the new boiler house, toilets and wash basins, sewer connections with city sewer and ready for water supply connections, were received as follows: Jacksonville Plumbing and Heating Co., $2,300; C. C. Schureman, $2,425; and the contract was awarded to the former.

The above includes the moving and setting of the boilers.

Heating Connections. The matter of the connections with the boilers and the steam heating arrangement of the David Prince building was brought up. Member Metcalf explained how, after several plans had been tried at the Woman's College, a tunnel 5 feet by 4 feet had been bored the most satisfactory. This plan was deemed the best and the same was adopted for this connection, the tunnel to be 4 feet wide and 5 feet high.

Superintendent Perrin explained the interior arrangement of the Springer property. He said by using the kitchen and the rooms on the first floor the manual training department and physical department could be accommodated and the second floor could be used for the commercial department.

Member Muehlhausen suggested that there was a hot air furnace in the house and that it might possibly be taken out and sold. It was, however, suggested that it

Senator Curtis, of Kansas and Senator Jones, of Washington, announced themselves in favor of summoning a quorum of the senate so the bill can be taken up immediately after it has been acted upon by the committee.

The suggestion was approved by Senator Chamberlain.

Provost Marshal General Crowder in a statement submitted by Senator Chamberlain, suggested Sept. 5, as the date for a national registration of men within the proposed new ages.

Weekly registration of youths attaining the age of 21 during the next few weeks was proposed by General Crowder as the only means of obtaining the 200,000 men to be called to the colors in Sept. This could be done by presidential proclamation and would add about 80,000 to the number of men available.

After carrying out the program for July and August General Crowder pointed out that only 100,000 of the 1918 registrants would be left on Sept. 1 for subsequent calls.

"The second and more difficult question," General Crowder's statement added, "is how we can supply on time the 150,000 men required for each of the succeeding months of October, November and December. The British-Canadian treaty would help out to the extent it is estimated—of about 50,000 men, which is not even the conventional 'drop in the bucket'."

"If we could assume that the law would be enacted in the remaining day of August we would have a basis of calculating the results to be obtained under it. As I stated to the senate military committee a minimum period of ninety days is necessary to enroll and classify all the men registered in the additional classes suggested. It cannot therefore wait for the completion of class one but must take men irrespective of their order number as fast as they find their way into class one."

"Perhaps we could receive assurances that the legislation could be enacted in the house in the period following its reconvening so that it could be taken up promptly by the senate on August 26 and passed before September 5 as a national registration day."

The superintendent said that prominent educators and practical men had prepared some special algebras and arithmetics in accordance with their ideas and had offered them for use and they had been adopted in a large number of cities. He asked permission to have the first course in arithmetic and the first course in algebra used with one class each during the year, simply as a trial to see how it would work.

Miss Calky had during the summer taken special work in this line and he thought she would be capable of teaching from these books, and accordingly Superintendent Perrin's suggestion was adopted.

The question had been asked regarding the use of Engineer Wood and Janitor Fernandes during the summer, and it was pointed out that both of these men had faithfully worked and had certainly earned their salaries.

Architects Seated. It had been the decision of the board to select a number of architects who would be invited to send in their credentials regarding their experience, ability and general fitness to prepare plans and specifications for the proposed high school building and from the list thus sent in ten would be selected.

In addition to two local architects, from the two local architects and four are to be invited to submit plans and specifications for the proposed high school building.

The chair read the list and from it five Chicago architects were chosen. The latter are Hewitt & Emerson, Peoria; Deak & Ginn, Lincoln; Henry Eckland, Moline; J. W. Royer, Grand; Arthur Pillsbury, Bloomington. The Chicago men are Parsons, Fellows & Hamilton Co., Holmes & Flynn, M. S. Spencer & Son, Pone & Pone and J. C. Llewellyn, Chicago. These are requested to send in all their credentials that they see fit at the earliest possible moment and from them four will be selected, who, with the two local architects, Messrs. Buckingham and Pierson, will be invited to submit plans and specifications for the proposed high school building. Advisor Holstun was to be advised of the list.

Will Not Attend Meetings. Member Pierson said that from this time forward until the adoption of plans and specifications for the new high school building he desired to be excused from attending any meeting of the board. Of course her reason was very plain, as her husband would be one of the competing architects, and she desired to avoid even the appearance of being in a position where any sort of inside information might possibly be secured, and therefore, in order to relieve the board of any embarrassment and to do full justice to herself and to her husband, she felt this was the proper course to pursue.

The board most highly commended Mrs. Pierson's conduct, and while expressing themselves in the opinion that she should be fully trusted in this matter not to divulge anything whatever, and having full confidence in her integrity, nevertheless under the circumstances it was deemed advisable to grant her request with great appreciation of the high-minded and honorable motives that prompted it. Member Parker took the most satisfactory part, and the board adjourned.

RETURN FROM VISIT. Judge W. E. Thomson and family have returned to the city after a week's absence. They spent the greater part of the time in Menard county. They were accompanied home by Miss Jesse Wood of Chicago, who is Mrs. Thomson's sister.

Mrs. Martin C. Paulson until recently Miss Bernice Martin, returned yesterday from Washington, D. C. Mr. Paulson as previously mentioned is in the government engineering service in Washington.

BRITISH AMBULANCE TRANSPORT WARILDA SUNK BY SUBMARINE

hospitals in various parts of the country. The torpedo struck the after part of the engine room killing the third engineer and two other members of the engine room force. The dynamo was destroyed, plunging the vessel into darkness. Just over the dynamo was the wardroom, which contained more than one hundred patients. Most of these were killed outright by the explosion and the others many of whom had been freshly injured by the torpedo found themselves trapped. It was impossible for outside aid to reach them and all, except a few who jumped over board and were picked up, perished. This part of the ship quickly settled and water flooded the wardroom drowning the men caged there.

Suffer From Exposure. A majority of the survivors had only the slight protection of their night clothing and suffered severely from exposure. All the Americans were sick cases and two officers were suffering with pneumonia. The Americans have been sent to a hospital.

All accounts agree that it was a torpedo which sank the ship. Two escorting destroyers dropped a number of depth bombs immediately after the attack. The ship was returning from France and had reached within a few miles of this port when about 1:30 the torpedo struck.

mind cannot be foretold. It is known, however, that Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, in the early stages of the allied offensive on the Soissons-Rheims sector detached large numbers of his men and sent them to the aid of his sorely tried imperial cousin, the German crown prince, thereby weakening his line while Field Marshal Haig's front was not materially touched by withdrawals. It is not improbable therefore that Rupprecht is working somewhat over this diminution in strength and already has placed barriers between himself and the forces fronting him to ward off possible attacks and is endeavoring to ascertain what chances he has to hold other positions from which he had intended ultimately to launch a drive toward the channel ports.

A German submarine has sunk the British ambulance steamer Warilda, as the vessel was homeward bound from France with sick and wounded. A large number of incapacitated men were killed by the explosion of the torpedo or drowned in attempting to leave the vessel in small boats. Several Americans were on board and one of them is missing.

Submarines again are working off the Atlantic seaboard—off the Virginia coast, where an American tank steamer has been sunk and off Nova Scotia where a number of small craft have been sent to the bottom.

RE-VISITING OLD HOME. Mrs. William Walter Moore, of Moorehead, Minn., is visiting at Mr. Ensey Moore's. Mrs. Moore has been spending some time with Mr. John A. Rawlings, of Bartlesville, Okla., and is now here at her old place of residence.

GOES TO HOSPITAL FOR OPERATION. Mrs. O. E. Tandy went to Our Savior's hospital Monday evening and today will undergo an operation. The operation will be performed by Dr. F. A. Norris assisted by Dr. Edward Bowe. Mrs. Tandy's many friends throughout the state will hope for her a speedy recovery.

NOTICE. The pictures of the soldiers boys who went to camp last week and also the picture of the colored boys who went Monday can be seen in Tomlinson's clothing window. These pictures were taken by Otto Spieth.

FUNERALS. Bridgeman. Funeral services for the late Mrs. Virginia Bridgeman were held Monday afternoon at Grace Chapel in charge of Rev. Mr. Fairchild, assisted by Revs. Cantrell and Kirkpatrick. There was a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends and the little church was filled. Music was furnished by a quartette composed of Misses Alma and Edna Ogle, Spencer and Elmer Smith. The flowers were kindly cared for by Misses Hazel Knaules, Harle Atoz, Rose Atoz, Frances Virginia and Myrtle Virgin. All these young ladies were great granddaughters of the deceased. The pall bearers were grandsons of the deceased: John and Earl Bridgeman, William and Samuel Atoz, James Middleton and John Virgin. The honorary pall bearers were: George and Elias Brainer, James Erickson, Thomas Forcand, James Dinwiddie, and Hugh Gilmore. Interment was made in Arcadia cemetery.

The men were taken from the schools to the dance in the big Liberty trucks.

FORMER EMPEROR'S LAST WORDS. Amsterdam, Aug. 5.—What seem to have been the last words of Nicholas Romanoff, former emperor, were: "Spare my wife and my innocent, unhappy children. May my blood preserve from ruin."

These words were called out by the former emperor just before he was shot by the firing squad.

Information to this effect was received here today by Captain McCall's father, Joseph B. McCall, president of the Philadelphia Electric company.

Captain McCall was 24 years old.

PHYSICIANS MUST SPEED UP EXAMINATIONS. Medical Advisory Board Receives Message That All Cases Coming from 1917 and 1918 Registrants Must Have Action Before August 12th.

The following telegram received by Dr. J. W. Hairgrove, chairman medical advisory board, from Adjutant General Dickson, emphasizes the speed with which the government is now moving in securing men for army service. The telegram points out that the advisory board must meet daily if necessary to take quick action on pending and referred cases. The board is given just about a week's time to complete examination of any men coming before it from the 1917 or 1918 classes.

"Notice has been received that another call is imminent for men and that another report on form 2000 will be required on or before August 15. In order to make this report of any value and to meet the extraordinary demand now existing for the mobilization of men, due to the sending abroad of unprecedented number, those boards who have not already done so must complete the physical examination of all class 1 men and the re-classification of 1917 men and the classification of 1918 registrants. Local boards must with the utmost expedition send all necessary cases to medical advisory boards. Medical advisory boards must if necessary meet daily until all pending and referred cases are disposed of. This program must be carried out not later than Aug. 12, before which time full particulars will be given in regard to further procedure."

mind cannot be foretold. It is known, however, that Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, in the early stages of the allied offensive on the Soissons-Rheims sector detached large numbers of his men and sent them to the aid of his sorely tried imperial cousin, the German crown prince, thereby weakening his line while Field Marshal Haig's front was not materially touched by withdrawals. It is not improbable therefore that Rupprecht is working somewhat over this diminution in strength and already has placed barriers between himself and the forces fronting him to ward off possible attacks and is endeavoring to ascertain what chances he has to hold other positions from which he had intended ultimately to launch a drive toward the channel ports.

A German submarine has sunk the British ambulance steamer Warilda, as the vessel was homeward bound from France with sick and wounded. A large number of incapacitated men were killed by the explosion of the torpedo or drowned in attempting to leave the vessel in small boats. Several Americans were on board and one of them is missing.

Submarines again are working off the Atlantic seaboard—off the Virginia coast, where an American tank steamer has been sunk and off Nova Scotia where a number of small craft have been sent to the bottom.

FORMER EMPEROR'S LAST WORDS. Amsterdam, Aug. 5.—What seem to have been the last words of Nicholas Romanoff, former emperor, were: "Spare my wife and my innocent, unhappy children. May my blood preserve from ruin."

These words were called out by the former emperor just before he was shot by the firing squad.

PHYSICIANS MUST SPEED UP EXAMINATIONS. Medical Advisory Board Receives Message That All Cases Coming from 1917 and 1918 Registrants Must Have Action Before August 12th.

The following telegram received by Dr. J. W. Hairgrove, chairman medical advisory board, from Adjutant General Dickson, emphasizes the speed with which the government is now moving in securing men for army service. The telegram points out that the advisory board must meet daily if necessary to take quick action on pending and referred cases. The board is given just about a week's time to complete examination of any men coming before it from the 1917 or 1918 classes.

"Notice has been received that another call is imminent for men and that another report on form 2000 will be required on or before August 15. In order to make this report of any value and to meet the extraordinary demand now existing for the mobilization of men, due to the sending abroad of unprecedented number, those boards who have not already done so must complete the physical examination of all class 1 men and the re-classification of 1917 men and the classification of 1918 registrants. Local boards must with the utmost expedition send all necessary cases to medical advisory boards. Medical advisory boards must if necessary meet daily until all pending and referred cases are disposed of. This program must be carried out not later than Aug. 12, before which time full particulars will be given in regard to further procedure."

SPEAKING OF THE WEATHER. Sunday the mercury registered 108. During the entire afternoon a hot wind blew that felt like a blast from a red hot furnace. Man and beast sweated and tried to keep cool without avail.

The hot wind resembled one of those for which Kansas and the southwest is famous, or perhaps it would be better to say infamous. The mercury Monday was 106 and many said that it seemed fully as hot as on Sunday.

However, the wind did not seem to have such steady heat in it as on Sunday, tho in the business district it was almost unbearable. From all parts of the country came reports of apparent damage to corn. It was the consensus of opinion that if the present brand of weather continued for a few days it would do untold damage to the corn crop.

EXEMPTION BOARD NEWS. Charles Caranen will leave for Camp Taylor tomorrow. His mobilization was transferred from local board No. 7 of Denver, Colo., to the Morgan county board.

Arthur Abay is a Morgan county man who failed to report for examination. He is said to be traveling now with the Bannum & Bailey circus and is running the chance of being classed as a deserter.

Charles R. Gibson, who was the chief orderly in charge of the 78 Morgan county men who left last Thursday for Camp Taylor, has sent a formal report to the board. Mr. Gibson states that the men arrived safely at 11 p. m. Thursday, all in good form and spirits.

The board is also in receipt of a report from Lloyd G. Ogle one of the men sent to Camp Syracuse, N. Y., August 1. He states that the men reached camp on schedule time after an uneventful journey. The men have been assigned to their tents and are comfortably located.

STUDIES PROBLEM OF HOUSING WORKERS

Young Women's Christian Association Made Exhaustive Study of Housing Problems in Various War Industry Centers—Model Home for Girls Erected at Charleston, S. C.

Where are the women to live who are flocking to the ever-growing munition and uniform factories?

One of the first matters the Young Women's Christian Association began to put its mind to was adequate housing for the women and girls who, with the sounding of the war declaration, began to move from their homes to the communities that overnight had become war industry centers. Munition plants came into being. Uniform factories were established. Around army cantonments where all had been open country and farm land, cities suddenly appeared. All these wanted women workers. And the women came, of course, as women always have taken their share of the world's work.

Adequate floor and roof space was provided for the machines and the shops of the new industries. The housing of the women workers was the last thing considered.

The Y. W. C. A. stands for decent and proper housing for men and girls. Nevertheless, it was obviously not in a position to go about the country erecting model homes for these newly arisen colonies of women workers.

But it was in a position to advise and suggest how such homes should be built. It went about the matter speedily and definitely.

An exhaustive study of the whole housing situation, as it affected women, was undertaken by its housing experts.

As a result of that study definite suggestions and plans for housing women workers were drawn up in concrete form and presented to the secretary of war and to Mr. Otto Eidlitz, chairman of the housing committee of the Council of National Defense. The suggestions, with illustrations and specifications, were put into pamphlet form and distributed to 7,000 manufacturers. This pamphlet has since become a recognized authority on the whole matter of housing women workers.

A Model Home for Girls. But the association did not stop with the printed suggestions. It is putting its suggestions into concrete form by erecting at Charleston, S. C., where the housing situation is especially grave, a model home for girls as a demonstration. The building will be ready for occupancy soon. This building is to include not only living and dining rooms but also recreation facilities.

There is but one entrance for residents, making it possible for the matron or social head of the house, who has an office near the door, to see everyone who comes in or goes out.

The entrance hall is attractive and homelike, with several parlors, and the recreation hall opening from it. In the parlors girls can receive their friends in privacy and in attractive surroundings.

The bed rooms are all single, eight feet by twelve. A place is to be provided in the basement where girls can do as much of their laundry work as they wish, to the grouping of girls the association's suggestions are that:

(1) Young girls should live in groups where they can have social life and opportunity to entertain friends, but still be under some of the restrictions of the home.

(2) Older women want independence of living. Many of them object to living in large groups because of the noise and confusion and ensuing fatigue.

(3) In every case colored girls should live by themselves, and provision should be made for their social life.

(4) It has been found that it is more successful to house the non-English speaking foreign girls in small groups until they learn English and become used to American customs.

A social worker should be employed to work with them.

Emphasis Laid on Recreation. "Too much emphasis cannot be laid on recreation," the housing pamphlet says. "No matter how comfortable and attractive the living quarters may be, the girls will not be happy and contented unless there is adequate provision for social and recreational life."

If the government shall decide to provide for its women workers the Y. W. C. A. has offered to supply the needed social and recreational workers.

Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is chairman of the housing committee of the war work council of the association and has a great deal to do with the preparation of the housing pamphlet.

Miss Mary Munson, an expert on group housing for girls, is on the staff of the war work council and travels over the entire United States studying the special housing problem and giving advice and help.

In many parts of the country it does not seem expedient to erect new buildings of any description for the women. The association, instead, puts it up to the people of those communities to open up more rooms to the women workers. The association establishes a rooming bureau, listing the rooms, after investigation, and directing the girls to them.

In many such places an association worker gives her whole time to room placing. In Bloomfield, N. J., for example, where a fuse factory employs 2,700 women, 150 girls were placed in such rooms by the association room secretary within three days.

In many centers the factory itself has erected houses for its women workers. In such cases, the Y. W. C. A. co-operates with the employers in giving help and advice. But it operates always as a free and independent organization. It has a wider interest than just housing alone. It is also there to organize the women so that they may have adequate recreation as well.

JOLIET PRISON

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 1.—Paroling of prisoners in comparatively large numbers as a step toward meeting labor shortage, an experiment in which Illinois is a pioneer, is meeting with complete success, according to state prison officials.

All prisoners used in essential industry, it is declared, have kept the trust imposed in them. One exception reported was the case of a man menally unbalanced. He was employed on government work at Rock Island and took some articles in a suit case that did not belong to him.

Others of the 150 prisoners at Rock Island when they learned of the theft became incensed and threatened the offender.

"I believe they would have killed the fellow if it had not been pointed out to them that the man was crazy," said an attaché of the division of pardons and paroles.

The other prisoners at Rock Island, it was stated, took up a collection and paid the person from whom the goods had been stolen.

Results Gratifying. "We have been very much gratified with the way the men have worked," said John H. Whitman, superintendent of prisoners. "Those trusted to act as they know they should are not disappointing us."

The men have shown enthusiasm for their work and have proved efficient and determined. One young chap, serving a term for forgery, it was said, had shown unusual skill in a certain sort of technical work being done for the government.

"If that young fellow will go straight and attend to business, I'll take him into a job that will pay him $5,000 a year," said a foreman of the department in which the young man was employed.

Two burly negroes are making ten dollars a day at tasks requiring physical strength. They are paid on piece work rates.

In passing the tests required for those seeking parole under the special war time arrangement each prisoner is given a suit of clothes and ten dollars. This must last until he has begun to earn money to support himself.

The plan of paroling prisoners was worked out by Superintendent Whitman, Will Colvin, superintendent of the division of pardons and paroles, and others of the division and had the hearty endorsement of Charles H. Thorne, director of the department of public welfare.

It is hoped to parole as many as a thousand men, although more than a fourth of that number has thus far been placed.

Joliet penitentiary which has a total of 1,559 prisoners had led in the number placed in emergency work with 78 men who are at Rock Island. The men are not assigned tasks inside the arsenal itself, but are engaged on work undertaken by contractors for the government.

From the state reformatory at Pontiac, fifty four young men have been sent into war industries.

Up to the present time, but five prisoners have gone from the Southern Illinois penitentiary at Chester, although it is planned to use men from this institution in greater numbers.

Work at Institutions. In addition to the war work for the federal government, prisoners have been assigned to state institutions to work as gardeners and laborers and in other capacities. From Joliet, eight men have gone to the epileptic colony at Dixon where it has been almost impossible to get help, authorities say. Ten men also have been sent from Joliet to the Soldiers and Sailors' Home at Quincy.

A departure from the regular program, it is announced, has been the paroling of thirty men to work as laborers on construction work at Alton. These workers were sent from Chester to help build an electric railway line from Alton, Illinois, to the new hospital for the insane at Alton. Inability to find laborers, it was declared, made construction of the line practically impossible, and prison authorities were appealed to.

Demand for workers from the state penal institutions, it is said, has grown into a very worthy prisoner can be placed in paying occupation, many of the positions open requiring skill in certain lines. The authorities, however, are exercising great care in releasing the men.

MATRIMONIAL

Cox-Barbour.

The following extract from the Frisco (Okla.) Record of last week will interest friends of a young lady here. Miss Barbour's father was a sister of Mrs. Elbert Rice of this city. All here will wish the pleasant girl a happy life.

"A quiet, but pretty home wedding took place in Prague Tuesday morning of this week, when Rev. Thomas of Chandler, pronounced the words that made Mr. Roscoe Cox of Chandler, and Miss Avis Barbour of this city, husband and wife. The wedding was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Geo. C. Barbour, and was witnessed by the mother, a brother, Ensley, of Muskogee, and by a close and intimate friend of the family, Miss Maud Haley of Edmond.

"Following the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served, and shortly after the happy and worthy young couple took their departure in a big Buick car, the gift of the bride's mother and brother, for a visit and vacation in Denver and other Colorado points. The wedding came as quite a surprise to the many friends of each party, and while rumor had been current that it was to occur, yet its suddenness made it all the more surprising. However, that which is to be, will be."

"The bride is one of the community's most gracious and refined and useful young women, of that type that makes friends of all and who is ever ready, willing and competent to do that which is undertaken, no matter the physical cost, or the long and tedious hours of faithful vigil. She is a graduate of our high school, also of the Whipple Academy, at Jacksonville, Ill., and of the University of Oklahoma, and by the incident of the Prague Chapter of the American Red Cross, she was unanimously elected as president of the chapter, which position she has most successfully and satisfactorily filled. For some time past she has been a most worthy and efficient employee of the First National Bank of Prague, and on her return home from Colorado, will again resume her duties with this institution until the first of the coming year. She is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority of Oklahoma, becoming affiliated with that society while attending the University. She has always been very active in religious and charity work and has endeavored herself to all who know her.

"The groom is one of Lincoln County's most honorable and upright young men, is a graduate of the law school of the University of Oklahoma, and by his painstaking, and careful attention to business has built up an enviable law practice at his home town, Chandler. He is an active member of the Phi Delta Phi fraternity and enjoys the confidence and friendship of all who have made his acquaintance. Upon his return home he will resume his profession until called into training camp by his country.

"The Record joins with the hosts of friends of the worthy young couple in extending congratulations and best wishes, and trusts that the Goddess of Prosperity, Happiness and Love will ever light their path in their journey thru life."

Special plate dinner, 11 to 1:30, 35c. Douglas Cafe. New management.

RECEIVED THIRTEEN LETTERS.

Fred Bray, with the colors over there, is surely a faithful son and brother as the family received yesterday fifteen letters from the young man. He is connected with the hospital corps and probably has time to write as the oldest letter as dated early in July. He said he was having the time of his life and spoke in high terms of the country and the people. July Fourth he spent in Paris; saw the president, Gen. Joffre and other notables. He is well and speaks in terms of great praise of the way the men are treated by the government.

DON'T YOU SOMETIMES HATE TO SHAVE YOURSELF IN THE MORNING?

Everything Necessary for the Man Who Shaves Himself

Guess you remember a few mornings ago, when you stood for a couple of minutes trying to make up your mind whether you would shave yourself or not. You hated the idea of starting the day with yesterday's whiskers on your face, but you hated the torture that you were going to suffer if you shaved.

There is no need for this if you have the proper lather. 50 per cent of a good shave is the lather. We very strongly recommend REXALL SHAVING CREAM. It lathers quickly and freely and if well rubbed on to the face, will soften the beard so that shaving becomes not only easy but pleasant. If you prefer stick or powder, we have the same excellent quality in these.

The razor is of course important and we would be glad at any time to show and advise the right kind for your beard and skin.

For a pleasant feeling after shaving the best thing to use is Rexall Shaving Lotion, which is an antiseptic and leaves the skin feeling cool and comfortable.

A little Talcum—there's a special kind of powder for men, you know—gives a finishing touch and makes your self-shave as enjoyable as any your barber ever gave you.

CITY COUNCIL HELD HOT WEATHER SESSION

Considerable Business Transacted
—No Mention Made of Weather
—Water Being Pumped from Lake.

A hot weather session of the city council was held Monday morning and business of a routine character was considered. The ordinance repealing section 8 of the tax levy ordinance which made a special levy for oiling the streets was adopted. It was proposed by a special tax to raise money for grading and oiling the streets. This money will not be available until 1919. Mr. Cox made the motion to adopt the ordinance with a second by Mr. Martin and when the vote on the roll was called Mr. Widmayer voted with them. Mayor Rodgers and Mr. Vasconcellos voted no but by the majority vote the oiling section of the tax levy ordinance was repealed.

It was the contention of Mr. Cox and Mr. Martin that the money raised by the special tax would not be sufficient to grade and oil more than one third or one half of the streets and that the tax would therefore not be fair to residents of other parts of the city. Mayor Rodgers and Mr. Vasconcellos took the ground that the work was greatly needed, that other taxes operated in the same way as this would with reference to having part of the work done one year and part the next, and furthermore that the funds provided from the special tax would not be available until the days of the next council and that certainly the next council will need money.

In the water department Mr. Vasconcellos reported that it is still very difficult to secure enough men for the work. Conditions are improved at the north side station where pumping is going on regularly but the amount of water is not sufficient for the needs and so pumping is in progress from Morgan lake. In fact, pumping from the lake has been going on now for about seven days.

Mr. Cox reported some trouble with sewers in various parts of the city and that some flushing work had been necessary. Mr. Martin brought to attention conditions at the city dumping ground, a number of complaints having been filed because of offensive conditions there. A considerable amount of lime has been secured, to be scattered all over the ground and Mr. Martin hopes that the unsanitary conditions complained of will be relieved.

Reports of officers were read and approved. City Clerk R. L. Pyatt reported returns as follows: from his office $26, Diamond Grove cemetery $249.65, from Jacksonville cemetery $10.

The section of Jacksonville cemetery reported five graves made and the section of Diamond Grove cemetery reported 15 graves made during the month.

The report from the water department showed total collections of $2,923.63. This amount is made up as follows: rents $2,907.93; taps $9, meter repairs $2.25, miscellaneous $10.45.

NEW SWITCH BOARD FOR ILLINOIS COMPANY

Local Telephone Company Begins Installation of Latest Switch Boards—Will Give Greatly Improved Service—Board Is Kellogg Secret Service Design.

After visiting several cities thruout the east during last February, for the inspecting of telephone exchanges, W. W. Holliday, manager of the Illinois Telephone company, purchased at that time a Kellogg Secret Service Telephone exchange board of the Kellogg Switchboard and Supply company of Chicago.

Just yesterday the switch board and its equipment arrived in Jacksonville and will be installed in the Illinois Telephone offices, the work beginning this week. It will be installed by a force of workmen from the Kellogg company with the assistance of Otto Domke, who is wire chief for the local telephone company.

Installation of the board will take about four weeks time, but it will in no way interrupt service on the present board, as all connections will be on the new board and then all the lines on the old board will be switched to the new one at once which will be done without affecting the service in any manner.

Carries All New Features.
The new switch board carries with it all the new features of telephone switch board construction. It is known as the Kellogg Secret Service switchboard getting its name from the fact that all conversation carried on over it is absolutely secret.

In the new board there is installed a unique automatic call distributor which insures an operator answering any call immediately, as each operator has your line signal before her. The instant a subscriber lifts a receiver the call comes instantly to the operator who is not busy and who can give instant service.

After the operator has received a call from one subscriber she completes this call by making connection with the telephone called for and presses a button which automatically sets in motion a ringing machine which in turn rings the bell of the phone called intermittently, three seconds ringing and then two seconds idle, until the party called answers the phone or the party calling hangs up the receiver.

In this connection the calling party receives an audible tone in the receiver which indicates that the party is actually being called.

This makes it unnecessary to joggle the receiver hook to attract the attention of the operator to re-ring the party. The only time necessary to operate the receiver hook is to attract the operator in the case of a re-call. If a subscriber should depress and release the receiver hook during a conversation they will be disconnected from their party.

On the board now in use the long distance, city and farm board are now operated separately, but on the new board the city and farm will be multiple, and the long distance separate. This will make it much more convenient in the handling of local calls. The new board is a 2,000 line board and the company expects to build on to this ultimately making it a 4,000 line board.

At the present time thirty-two operators are required to operate the board, but with the installation of the new board the same service can be rendered by six less operators. This alone demonstrates the greater efficiency of the new board.

Salary Demanded on Call.
The operators are now being paid a definite monthly salary, but it is expected that as soon as the new board is in operation each operator will be paid by the 1,000 calls she answers. This will give each girl something to work for, and the more efficient she becomes the higher will be her salary. The board is equipped with an automatic device for registering the number of calls each operator answers.

With the installation of the new board the service of the Illinois telephone will be much more efficient, speedy and will give a secret service to all subscribers all of which will be much appreciated by the subscribers.

THE JACKSONVILLE CHAUTAUQUA Its Program.

Strange as it may seem, there are intelligent and cultured people in this community who have no conception as to what the Jacksonville Chautauqua really is. Some have the idea that because season tickets for the ten day assembly may be had for one dollar and a half, that the Chautauqua cannot be of high quality on the theory that cheap is nasty, others regard the Chautauqua as the successor of the street fair with a complement of slap-stick comedians and jazz bands and still others have never thought about the matter at all and pass it by as not worth considering.

On the other hand, for some years an increasing number of our people who regularly go away for summer vacations arrange their plans so as to be home for the Chautauqua. These people get away, see what is doing elsewhere and have come to recognize the assembly as well worth while.

When one thinks of it, it is marvellous that a program can be built including so many fine attractions for the ridiculously low price of fifteen cents a day. As a matter of fact there are several lectures and musical organizations on the program, that on account of the cost, could be brought to Jacksonville by no other organization. The proof of the pudding is the eating thereof, and the Jacksonville Chautauqua is presenting programs unexcelled anywhere at a price less than any other assembly of the kind charges and is succeeding financially thanks to the many persons who guarantee season tickets and to work of those of its directors who give freely of their time and energy.

The Jacksonville Chautauqua is not a cheap, hand-picked assembly operated purely for profit by an out-of-town manager of the type of many that camp in the villages and hamlets and run for from four to eight days at $1.50 to $3.00 for season tickets. It is a program the wishes of the great public must be considered. It must be varied, have many popular numbers and should be up-lifting and educational and at the same time entertaining. It cannot, of course, please everyone in its entirety, but any one can pick enough attractions to suit his taste to make the assembly well worth while.

Who has not paid more than a dollar and a half to hear such a program as two concerts by the Boston Symphony Sextette and two lectures by Lorado Taft on Tuesday, or two concerts by the Sextette and the Shakespearean lecture and recital by C. E. Griffith on Wednesday, or a concert and the opera Olivette by Irvin S. Cobb on the first Friday, or two concerts by the Grenadiers Singing and Acting Band, Private Peat and the inimitable Margaret Stahl on the first Sunday, or two concerts by the fine male quartet, Lieut. Rossela and Edward A. Ross on the last Sunday, or the programs of the other days which are just as high class and complete as these, and who of us has not often paid one dollar and a half or more for a single concert by such an organization as Liberati's Concert band and Grand Opera Company with its forty-six musicians and singers?

An analysis of the program shows that it includes 13 concerts, 2 comic operas, 12 lectures by Irvin S. Cobb, Medill McCormick, Private Peat, Lorado Taft, Mrs. Medill McCormick, H. R. Rathbone, George E. Foss, William A. Evans, Edward A. Ross, Lieut. Rossela, and Chas. B. Griffith, 6 entertainments including movies, magic and music, and readings, 8 lectures on nature study, etc., 6 demonstrations in household economics and a number of addresses. Altogether there are more than sixty numbers on the program furnished by over one hundred lecturers and musicians. One who enjoys good music, clean fun and fine lectures, or who wants to keep in touch with the world's progress, or who has a child to educate can ill afford to miss such a program and for the child the assembly is an education in itself.

VISITED IN LOUISVILLE.
Miss Alma Mackness has returned home from a visit of some weeks with Mrs. Albert A. Curry at Camp Taylor, Ky. Miss Mackness also spent some days with others friends. Corp. and Mrs. Curry are living several miles distant from Camp Taylor because Corp. Curry's duties are in connection with the remount station which is several miles away from Camp Taylor. When he was first placed there only a few hundred head of horses were cared for and now the number is more than 6,000 so it can be seen that during his stay at the camp the remount station has really had its development. Horses are brought there not only from Camp Taylor but from West Point, Ky., about 22 miles away and from another army camp which is also in the same locality.

Miss Mackness was frequently at Camp Taylor and saw a number of Morgan county soldiers, although by far the greater number of those sent from this county to Camp Taylor were subsequently transferred to other camps.

JAMES MAYES DIED AT MEREDOSIA SUNDAY

Aged Man Struck By Automobile Passes Away—Coroner Rose Held Inquest.

The death of James H. Mayes occurred at the family home in Meredosia Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Because of the conditions surrounding his death it was decided to hold an inquest and Coroner Rose held the inquest Sunday evening. The verdict was that Mr. Mayes came to his death from "leakage of the heart, increased by extreme heat during the period of confinement resulting from an unavoidable accident". The jury the coroner summoned included F. A. Hillig, Clyde Hembrough, Albert Butcher, P. O. Summers, W. E. Wolden and Clarence Brown. At the inquest evidence was heard from Dr. Louis Neville, J. P. Baum, S. F. Kuhlman and H. C. Wegehoff. It seems that Mr. Mayes, who was about ninety years of age, suffered an accident July 15, when he was struck by an automobile driven by F. H. Unland. His leg was broken and his hip was injured. It was stated the accident was caused because Mr. Mayes became confused and stepped in front of the car.

Mr. Mayes was born July 27, 1828 in Riblington, England, and when about twenty one years of age was married to Miss Mary Fewell. With his wife and two small daughters he emigrated to the U. S. in December, 1857, and steered on a farm near McKendree Chapel a few miles from Meredosia. There he lived for a period of ten years. After the death of Mrs. Mayes he removed to Meredosia. August 7, 1870, he was again married, the second wife being Miss Catherine Gideon. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Maria Mescham of Beardstown and Mrs. Martha Miller of the McKendree Chapel neighborhood. There are also surviving one sister, Mrs. Maria Barsfield of Naples and three brothers, Charles of Meredosia, Richard of Guthrie, Okla., and Joseph of Champaign county.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church, a man who lived uprightly and who had the confidence and good opinion of all who know him. The arrangements for the funeral are not complete but it is expected that it will be held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at McKendree Chapel, with services in charge of Rev. Mr. Hope, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church. Interment will be in the Newman cemetery.

MAC BANCROFT WRITES TO PARENTS
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bancroft have received several letters from their son, Sergeant McGregor Bancroft who is now "Somewhere in France". Sergeant Bancroft was attending an officers' training school when the men were recalled and sent across in a hurry.

He writes that he saw much of England and has also seen lots of France as they have been moved frequently. Mr. Bancroft speaks highly of France and its people. He says that he has plenty to eat and is well pleased with his work.

Sergeant Bancroft sailed for France June 3, and this was the first word his parents had received from him. Naturally they were delighted to hear from him and to know that he is well. He is with the 331st Infantry, 83 Division. It is probable that his division has been in action in the recent offensive.

MT. EMORY BAPTIST CHURCH OVER TOP
At an all day meeting held Sunday Mt. Emory Baptist church officers announced that $1,000 had been raised for paying off the mortgage against the church.

This amount was raised thru a movement started several months ago and was made possible by a unity of effort that was most pleasing to those in charge of the campaign.

The members gathered for the morning service and then at noon a basket dinner was enjoyed in the church. At the afternoon meeting held at 3 o'clock other churches joined in the exercises.

Eugene Hayden, financial secretary made the announcement of the result of the campaign. He announced that the sum of $1,045 has been subscribed most of it in cash donations and will be ample to wipe out the entire indebtedness of the church.

At the first meeting held in September will occur the burning of the mortgage. This will be carried out with appropriate ceremonies. The Dorcas sewing circle under the direction of Mrs. Alice Scott worked hard and donated the sum of $110 to the cause. The Sunday school under the direction of Mrs. Medora Bryant also deserves great credit and the many friends who assisted are hereby extended the thanks of the officers and congregation for their generosity.
